v.

DISTRICT COURT CASE NO. 1:11-CV-1331

RICK LEE UEERROTH,

HON. ROBERT J. JONKER

Defendant.

ORDER

This case comes before the Court on Report and Recommendation from the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Michigan (docket # 1). Plaintiff, Michigan State University Federal Credit Union, filed a complaint to determine the dischargeability of a debt owed by Defendant Rick Lee Ueberroth to Plaintiff and seeking a money judgment in the amount of $2,795.93 plus statutory interest against Defendant. Complaint, Mich. State Univ. Fed. Credit Union v. Uueberroth (In re Uueberroth), Adv. Pro. No. 11-80389 (Bankr. W.D. Mich. Aug. 19, 2011), ECF No. 1. Defendant failed to answer the complaint, and Plaintiff subsequently filed a motion for entry of a default judgment against Defendant. Id. (ECF No. 11). The Bankruptcy Court held a hearing on November 22, 2011, to address Plaintiff's motion, but Defendant did not appear. (docket # 1.) The Bankruptcy Court's Report and Recommendation followed. (Id.)

In its Report and Recommendation, the Bankruptcy Court concluded that default judgment against Defendant was appropriate, and that the complaint constituted a core matter under 11 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). Relying on the Supreme Court's recent decision in Stern v. Marshall, ___ U.S. ___, 131 S. Ct. 2594 (2011), however, the Bankruptcy Court concluded it lacked the constitutional authority to enter a final judgment in this matter and therefore submitted its Report and Recommendation to this Court for the entry of judgment.

After reviewing the Bankruptcy Court's Report and Recommendation and the record below, the Court grants Plaintiff's motion for default and enters a money judgment in favor of Plaintiff against Defendant in the amount of $2,795.93 as recommended by the Bankruptcy Court. While the Court acknowledges the uncertainty Stern created regarding the constitutional authority of bankruptcy courts to enter final judgment in certain proceedings, the Court does not believe Stern affects the Bankruptcy Court's authority to enter a default judgment in this action. However, it is undisputed the Court has jurisdiction to enter judgment in this matter, and the Bankruptcy Court's reference of the matter to the Court does not constitute reversible error. Cf. In re Burkman Supply, Inc., 217 B.R. 223, 223 (W.D. Mich. 1998) ("[T]he fact that the bankruptcy judge in this matter took the additional step and submitted this matter to the Court by way of a report and recommendation does not constitute reversible error."). Therefore, in order to resolve this matter in an expeditious, efficient, and cost-effective manner, the Court adopts the Bankruptcy Court's recommendation to enter judgment in favor of Plaintiff.

IT IS SO ORDERED. The Clerk of Court shall enter Judgment.
